

Tours are given daily at 1, 2, and 3pm with an admission price of $12 for adults, $11 for seniors, and $7 students/children. Travel back in time and learn about the first permanent settlers to the area, Frank and Ivy Stranahan, and the creation of the city of Fort Lauderdale. The Stranahan House was built in 1901 by Frank Stranahan, Fort Lauderdale's first postmaster, and his wife Ivy Cromartie Stranahan, the area's first school teacher. The house has served as a trading post, post office, community center, restaurant, and home to the Stranahans. This is a story of a family, a house, and a city. No reservations required.
