ABOUT STRANAHAN HOUSE

The oldest and most historically significant surviving structure in Broward County has served as a trading post, post office, town hall, and home to the Stranahans. Frank Stranahan is Fort Lauderdale first businessman and most respected pioneer. His wife, Ivy Cromartie Stranahan, was the area's first school teacher and a champion of many civic, social service, environmental, and educational causes. The mission of the Historic Stranahan House Museum is to tell the story of the birth of the community through the lives of two extraordinary people and the homestead they created and to serve as an enduring legacy of historic preservation.

Our purpose is to preserve, interpret, and promote the House, historic site, and history of our community's founding family. Every year, more than 3,000 fourth-grade school children and 30,000 tourists and locals visit, making the House one of the top cultural attractions in Fort Lauderdale.

ABOUT PINEAPPLE JAM

Pineapple Jam is the Historic Stranahan House Museum's largest annual fundraising event. Pineapple Jam brings together more than 300 community leaders for a tropical celebration at Broward County's oldest and most historic home. The "Party in Paradise for Preservation" includes an open bar, live music, great food, and a raffle featuring exclusive items and experiences. All proceeds support the year-round historic preservation and education programs at the Historic Stranahan House Museum, the top cultural attractions in Fort Lauderdale.
